

MC-COMPONENTS is the best supplier 2007

Austrian Gaming Industries GmbH awards the Austrian specialist company

Wimpassing an der Leitha/Gumpoldskirchen, 20. Juli 2008 -

Every year the Austrian Gaming Industries (AGI), a 100 percent subsidiary of Novomatic AG, awards a prize to its best supplier. MC-COMPONENTS was ranked first in 2007. The service provider and specialist retailer accepted the award "best supplier 2007" in June 2008 in Gumpoldskirchen.

MC-COMPONENTS Ewald Mogg GmbH has good reasons to celebrate. On 14th June 2008 the AGI awarded the company, whose activities spread across Europe, the first prize as its best supplier 2007.

Susanne Tichy, company representative and Sales Manager of MC-COMPONENTS explains: "Personal advice, an individual service and customer orientation in practice define our corporate strategy. The award "best supplier 2007" is living proof of our holistically fine-tuned corporate approach."

Some stringent qualitative as well as quantitative criteria must be fulfilled to be selected by the jury of AGI. The selection criteria include the adherence to delivery dates and quantity stipulations, optimal processing of orders, quality of documents, the price and a number of subjective criteria.

"Flexibility, on-time scheduling and an intensive technical support service from our suppliers are important to us. The storage capacities of MC Components in Austria guarantee us short response times for deliveries," says Ing. Robert Moser, CPO of AGI.

Fifty of the 500 suppliers of the Austrian Gaming Industries are evaluated each year according to their turnover. In 2007 MC-COMPONENTS achieved 95 of the total 100 points.
