

Rescue Squad Aids the Stork

Fanwood—"Mother and baby boy doing fine," reported Muhlberg Hospital—and so is the Fanwood Rescue Squad, which helped deliver the boy at the traffic light at Park Ave. and Randolph Rd. shortly after 8:30 a.m. yesterday.

The mother, Mrs. Joe W. Randle of 819 E. Curtis St., told her husband, Joe, it was "time" as they were driving through Fanwood. They stopped at police headquarters for help.

With Patrolman Joseph Steinman at the wheel, squad members Mrs. Jeanne McHugh and William Crosby welcomed baby Randle in the ambulance just one block from the hospital.

The squad, which has never been honored with an arrival enroute in its 14 year history, plans to celebrate the event Apr. 5.
