

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Melanie Melz
Address: Von-Schell-Str. 5, 33332 Gütersloh, Germany
Date of birth: 06. 07. 1979

1. EDUCATION

2005 Diploma in Sociology, University of Hamburg and Bielefeld, Germany.

2. WORK EXPERIENCE

1998 - 1999 Voluntary community service in the "Brüderhof", an organization for people with chronically mental illnesses, Norderstedt.

1999 - 2001 Senior citizen's nursing assistant at the community service of the Diakonie St. Pauli, Hamburg.

2001 - 2002 Trainee and student assistant in the Research Department at the Clinic of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy Bethel, Bielefeld.

2003 Trainee in the Criminalistic Department of the Federal Criminal Police Office, Wiesbaden.

2004 – 2008 Night watch in the „WGV Phönix“, Bethel, an Institution for drug dependant and drug substituted individuals, Bielefeld.

2006 - Project manager for the Society for Applied Social Research, Gütersloh.

2007 - 2008 Evaluation of the further education „Encouraging Children“ („Kinder stark machen“) by order of the Federal Centre for Health Education.

2008 - Evaluation of the further education „Keep playing“ („Bleib im Spiel“) by order of the Federal Centre for Health Education.

3. SCIENTIFIC AWARDS

The third Research Prize 2006 of German Society of Social Psychiatry (Deutsche Gesellschaft für Soziale Psychiatrie, DGSP) for the study „Therapy goals of inpatient treatment with psychosis. Results of triologic interviews with exusers, relatives and professionals“.

4. PUBLICATIONS:

Melz, M., Gürtler, R., Prins, S., Puffay, M., Zechert, C. (2006): Kann man triologisch forschen? Psychosoziale Umschau 1/2006, 16-17.

5. LANGUAGE SKILLS:

German: native

English: writing (good), speaking (good), reading (good)

Russian: basic knowledge

5. OTHER SKILLS:

Word, Excel, PowerPoint, SPSS, EPI Info, Photoshop,
Microsoft and Linux Computer Systems