Stupid Cupid Wow! I can't believe its almost Valentine's Day. I Can't wait to get my hands on a box of Chocolates! I'm gonna eat and eat and eat. All that yummy-gummy, icky-sticky, ooey-gooley chocolate. And those cute little heart candies and heart shaped cakes. Oooh, Candy and Love and Love and Candy ! Oooh...

Wavering Wanda

Hi, Stupid Cupid. What were you saying about Valentine's Day? Something about chocolates and candy.

Stupid Cupid

Yeah, it's gonna be great, Wavering Wanda. Aren't you excited ?

Wavering Wanda

Well,.....yes, But I'm feeling scared too. You see, I'm trying to lose some weight and take better care of myself. But I sure do love chocolates. I hope I can resist.

Sensible Sam

Excuse me, Wavering Wanda. I couldn't help overhearing your conversation. I lost my excess weight in my TOPS chapter, and we have a helpful motto. It is: Moderation in all things; then you'll see the joy it brings.

Stupid Cupid

Oh, ignore him, Wanda. I have a motto too: Eating goodies ain't so bad; being slim is just a fad!

Wavering Wanda

Gee, I don't know, Stupid Cupid. I want to be able to look and feel good about myself.

Sensible Sam

That's the spirit, Wanda. You've got to hang in there and be consistent. Did you know that being overweight also can contribute to depression and put one at high risk for other serious health problems? Why not visit my TOPS chapter, where we learn to take off and keep off pounds sensibly? We have lots of fun too.

Stupid Cupid

Oh, come on, Wanda. Don't listen to him. He sounds too serious to have fun. He probably saved up his candy money to have his sweet tooth extracted. Why, he's so slim, I'll bet he has no LOVE Handles! Join me, Wanda, not TOPS. Don't you want a sweet treat? Don't you want some candy and cake? Forget your diet and let's really party. Yo, Mama! Let's boogie!

Wavering Wanda

Look, Stupid Cupid, we're both too chubby. My excess weight makes me sad and depressed. I miss the old slimmer me. Sure, the goodies are fun to eat, and they might take my mind off my problems for a while. But, you know, the goodies are only a temporary fix. Then it's right back to reality.

No, Cupid, I'm gonna eat my fruit and vegetables and trim my waistline. And you should consider joining me. I thought Cupid was supposed to be all about hearts and love. Why don't we both take care of our HEARTS and LOVE ourselves enough to eat sensibly and get healthy? Be an angel Cupid, and join TOPS with me!

Lucid Cupid

Well,...I have been feeling a little strain on my wings lately. Okay, I'll give it a try. But, tell me, do you think they'll make me wear my wings during weigh in ?

{Wanda grins and shrugs her shoulders at Cupid. Cupid returns her grin and shrugs too}

Wanda, Cupid and Sam
