D1 Arrival in Kathmandu

D2 One day in Kathmandu

D3 Travel to Arugat by bus

D4 Soti Kola

The path goes up and down along the mountain and follows the river Gandaki.

D5 Maccha Kola 880m

We are at low altitude and we can admire the cultures know as the “terraced cultures” (rice, barley, etc.). We walk slowly as the weather is quite hot.

D6 Dovan (Doban) 920m

This stage is really beautiful ; we walk on a very pleasant path which follows a quite big river. Dovan means the junction between two rivers.

D7 Doban (Dovan) – Philim 1550m

Walking at this altitude, the weather is quite hot and breaks in the shadow are very much appreciated. We walk through the village of Jagat, there are a lot of Ponthesias, it is very calm. After crossing a long bridge, we reached Philim.

D8 Philim – Ghap 2150m

We continue to walk along the river ; the mountain being quite steep in this area, it is recommended to stay on the path.

D9 Ghap – Lho 3150m

We are now surrounded by crops of barleys. Most of the inhabitants are Tibetans. Going up is quite long but as you arrive at the entrance of the village you have a breath-taking view on the Manaslu! Amazing views, wonderful!

D10 Lho – Samagaun 3520m

As we leave the village of Lho, we are facing the Manaslu. We start to walk higher and the acclimatisation is done progressively. You have to walk slowly but as the views are breath-taking, it is worse!

From Samagaun, you can visit the village of Samagompa which is a bit higher.

D11 Samagaun – Samdo 3840m

Today is a small stage. We walk to the village of Samdo, a typical tibetan village, full of authenticity. There are also lots of yaks.

D12 We are resting in the village of Samdo in order to get acclimatised.

D13 Samdo – Dhamrmasa 4480m

We are on the path which is used by Tibetans when they come to Nepal to sell some teas, salts, etc. We are now quite high and we walk “bistari” (which means slowly in Nepali) to get acclimatised. Once we arrive at the camps, tents are already set up. At 3pm, the sun has already disappeared. We stay in our tent to rest and have a good night of sleep before climbing Larke Pass !!

D14 Dharmasala – Larke Pass 5120m – Bimtang 3800m

We wake up at 3am and leave the camp at 4.30am.

In order not to have headache, we walk slowly. The sun rise around 6am. The path that leads us to the Pass is beautiful. Once at the Pass, we enjoy the views and take lots of pictures. We also rest to gather some strengths before going down via the moraine to the village of Bimtang.

D15 Bimtang – Dharapani 2100m

We go down to Dharapani and walk through a forest. The path is very pleasant.

Please note that the list is not exhaustive and should be completed and/ or modified with your doctor.

Advices for altitude greater than 3500m

- Walk very slowly. You must push yourself to walk slowly and do not try to follow someone else. When you have found a good walking rhythm, slow down a bit more. Acclimatisation to altitude is a long and slow process.
- At the campsite or lodge, do not make any sudden moves, avoid any over exertation; everything must be done very slowly.
- In the evening, before going to bed and from 3500m of altitude, you can take between 250 and 500mg of aspirin.
- During the night, try to sleep with the upper body slightly higher. Always keep a flask or water bottle next to you to drink during the night.
- During the day, drink a lot; always try to have a full flask or water bottle with you. The guide will fill them in the morning before trekking.

Pressurised Bag :

For the trek or trekking peak, we can rent for you a pressurised bag if it is already used by some of our expeditions. Cost is of approximately 350 euros for one month.

You can also rent it to one of the producer Certec www.certec.eu.com

Please note that for this trek a pressurised bag is not considered a necessity.

Satellite phone :

You can rent a satellite phone on the following websites :

www.francesatellite.com

www.cellhire.fr/content/satellite.htm

telephone-satellite.marinesat.fr/

Money : Change your money in Thamel. There are a lot of official exchange offices; there is one at approximately 500m of the International Guest House Hotel where you will stay.

Euros and pounds are accepted in all the exchange offices and banks of Nepal. You can also withdraw some money with your VISA card or Mastercard in some of the banks in Kathmandu and Pokhara. However, you will need to pay a transaction fee for it. Finally, in Kathmandu, euros are usually accepted in all the shops.

During the trek, take only small bank notes that you would have exchanged in Kathmandu (10 to 500 roupies).

Insurance : You must have an insurance covering "Rescue + Recovery + Medical and Emergency Expenses"

You will have to indicate on the booking form, the contact details of your insurance company and the person to contact in case of emergency.

Make sure that the fees to be rescued by helicopter are included in your insurance contract and without any restrictive clauses due to the altitude. In England, the British Mountaineering Club have such unrestrictive clauses. Be careful as insurance linked to your credit card does not always cover for rescue/recovery and research.

You can also subscribe to an insurance that will protect you against cancellation and losses or theft of your belongings.

Time Difference :

France-Nepal : 3h45 in summer and 4h45 in winter. For example, when it is 12h in France, it is 14h45 in Nepal in summer and 16h45 in winter.

United Kingdom-Nepal: 4h45 in summer and 5h45 in winter.

Electricity :

The voltage is of 220 Volts. There are regular power cuts but they are generally not very long. You can find adapters for the plugs in the hotel.

Movie-Pictures :

You can find everything in Thamel (the area surrounding your hotel), memory cards, films, batteries (AA, lithium, etc.). You can also develop and print on paper or CD your pictures. The quality is very good and prices very attractive.
