

AGE YE ROOZ

If I could I would change the world with one song But I cant, I probably need some more I rumble with thoughts like comm'on you cant reach those out there just come home but nah bro, I know, that this here is possible cause we can do anything that we put out minds to so mind you, put your mind in too, and stop pulling me down like Im suicidal its a suicide when I sue a side yo my devils on my left my angel on my right shoulder I love em both to death they make me appreciate my life more now bring em both together I wanna tell em where Im gonn go wake up, Mister on my left side wake up, I had a conversation with your right side neighbor and we need your sake for this little operation we call it being great and making that paper...im sayin...

I got this dude on my left itching for the material and the guy on my right is striving for the spiritual and we gotta get it together...im saying we gotta get it together with the dude on my right, plus the dude on my left I know that money aint food like cheddar and I wont be fooled like a mouse in its trap na, man I'll leave that cheddar, just to come back with a rope with a rope, see I'm clever enough to eat with out being fed up or swallowing my pride with kilos of whatever I speak with my devil and speak with my angel they both consult me I see their relevance like Im japanese a ying and yang theorist but i aint I'll just make music with a plan and age ye rooz I blow up I give thanks to my devil cause he showed up at the right timing promoted my album like a huge product and everybody finally got it and age ye rooz I blow up I give thanks to my angel cause she showed love and inspired mine daily to fly up high and draw painting now look at mine Mom I finally made it age ye rooz
