LET SAUDI KING ABDULLAH KNOW THAT WE HAVEN'T FORGOTTEN!

END GENDER APARTHIED AND RELIGIOUS OPPRESSION

TUES. JUNE 29TH, 2010

TIME: 12:00pm-2:30pm

WHITE HOUSE

1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20500

- Hadi Al-Mutif, a Saudi religious prisoner was arrested for his Shi'a Ismaili Muslim beliefs.
- He has been detained since 1993, making him the longest-held religious prisoner in the world today.
- Hadi is on death row because of his minority-status religious beliefs. We want the King to release Hadi and be granted asylum into the U.S.

- Nathalie Morin, a Canadian citizen, is being held against her will in Saudi Arabia with her three kids by her husband.
- Women cannot leave Saudi Arabia without their husbands permission and Nathalie is deemed the "property" of her husband.
- We want the King to demand the release of Nathalie so she can return to Canada with her children.
